DAY CARE BLIP THIS WEEK

It's been a busy September already! The summer went by so fast but everyone is slowly getting back into the fall routine.

The School Age children are back to school and for the most part they are happy to be back.

We have welcomed quite a few new and some returning families to our Day Care family.

We are looking forward to more and friendship as we head into the fall season.

ACCOMMODATION NEEDED – Hello Scarborough Corps, My name is Kathleen Braden (Nee Preece) I grew up in your church and worshipped with you many, many years ago, before leaving for university. I am contacting you because a good friend of mine is moving to Toronto to work at Queen's Park and is in need of housing. I can vouch for his Christian character and he is willing and able to pay rent. He would entertain shared facilities and would be a great house mate. He will be worshipping at a Reformed Presbyterian church while in Toronto and travelling to and from his home town many weekends. If you could let me know if there is anything available within your church community, I'd really appreciate it. My e-mail is jkgbraden@gmail.com Thanks again. Many blessings in our shared Saviour - Kathleen
